CHRIST
APPEARS IN GLORY

Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time September 26, 2010

[K]eep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ.

— 1 Timothy 6:14

AT THE END

In the coming weeks, as we draw nearer to the end of the liturgical year, we will often hear references to the end of our lives and the end of time. This week's scriptures are no exception. The reading from Timothy warns us to live "without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Timothy 6:14), and the psalm says that God "secures justice for the oppressed . . . but the way of the wicked he thwarts" (Psalm 146:7, 9). In the reading from Amos we hear about the "woe" that is in store for the complacent rich, who think nothing of how their self-indulgence oppresses the poor. The Gospel parable about Lazarus and the nameless rich man exemplifies such complacency, as well as the justice that both the wicked and the oppressed will experience beyond the grave.

Vigésimo Sexto Domingo do Tempo Comum 26 de Setembro de 2010

Deus ... quer que todos os homens se salvem e cheguem ao conhecimento da verdade.

— 1 Tim 6, 14

Lembra-te sempre disto...

Quando entrates numa igreja, não tenhas pressa de começar a rezar! Concentra-te, deixa que Deus se aproxime e, quando te sentires calmo e longe do mundo, fala com Deus.

A nossa fé é como uma escada. Para subi-la, tem de ser alimentada, para que possa crescer cada vez mais.

Reza sempre com o coração e não tenhas pressa. A oração deve ser vivida com muita calma, com muita devoção. Para correr, basta o nosso dia-a-dia.

Quando rezares o terço, fá-lo porque tens fome de o fazer, e não porque... tem de ser. Reza o terço com calma e nunca comeces sem antes te encontrares durante alguns instantes em silêncio contigo próprio.

Se seguires isto irás sentir a tua alma cheia de uma grande profundidade interior.

Rezar é falar com Deus, é abrir o nosso coração para que possamos convidar Deus a entrar.

Nunca, mas nunca, sejas papagaio.

Alguém me ensinou isto. Tenho posto em prática e sinto que a minha oração é muito mais profunda, muito mais verdadeira, que existe muito mais amor!
